Communications Systems Management, Inc.
Siemens National Pinnacle Sales Award Winner
2004, 2005 and 2006

CSM was awarded the Siemens National Pinnacle Sales Award once again in 2006 for outstanding sales achievement in the small and mid-sized enterprise market. CSM placed first nationally in a field of over 100 dealers operating in 45 states “Our growing resale program demonstrates the continued momentum and influence that Siemens is having as a next-generation visionary for multimedia communications that can be tied directly to business process and workflow improvements,” said Rick Fitzgerald, vice president and general manager of the Siemens Channel Solutions Group, Siemens Communications Inc. “For our award winners, significant accomplishments grew out of strong commitments to helping customers be more successful via the Siemens portfolio of solutions.”

CSM looks forward to raising the bar of excellence as it continues in its corporate mission of delivering the promise of IP communications.
